

INTRODUCTORY MATTERS

Philosophy: The African Community Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.

The Board of Education has the financial resources to take responsibility for their children. A positive learning environment is an absolute necessity for the development of the child.